A-kon 13: Brighton Tap Room

Hello and welcome to the 4th annual Radio Wasabi J-pop video room! This year is going to be the best ever. Not only do we have the honor of welcoming DUEL JEWEL to our fine country, but we have brand new programming, an even better dance than in previous years, as well as a cosplay contest and an all-new video request program. A-kon is bigger and better than ever, and Radio Wasabi hopes to welcome a whole new wave of Japanese music fans.

We would like to thank Matthew Pearne of Yokohama, Japan for supplying us with a lot of new videos.

Another thanks goes to Helayne Gaither for generously supporting DUEL JEWEL and helping fans get their music at the same time.

We'd also like to thank various members of Radio Wasabi who have helped with programming, advertising and moral support. I'd name names, but I'm sure to miss somebody. So, thank you all!

Lastly, Tim and I would like to say a solemn "Thank You" to Shirley Collier, who passed away last year. We miss you much, and thank you for helping us do all this. We love you.

Enjoy the show!

Radio Wasabi would also like to wish Tomoyasu Hotei, godfather of guitarists, a speedy recovery. Ganbatte, Hotei-san!

Message from Duel Jewel
(translated by Sophie)

From Hayato (vocals): Sing! Sing with a big voice!

From Shun (guitar): Only in Japan would you be able to see a live from a visual kei band. Please enjoy the world of emotions presented by Duel Jewel.

Yuya (guitar): We are here because you have faith in our music. We will do our best. Please support us.

Natuski (bass): Because this is our first overseas live performance, we might worry that we won't reach you. But we will do our best! Please buy lots of Duel Jewel goods.

Val (drums): Everyone's a little nervous about our first performance in America, but please see, hear and feel our "yamatomamashii" (Japanese spirit).
